THE PUBLIC PRINTING .- The A Public Printing of Congress has been so wretche executed," and so greatly delayed, that all parties dem a reform. Our National Printing, which should be in seep ing with the character of our country, is a disgrace to the profession. This comes from the miserable "auctioneering," system adopted by Congress, by which incompetent and unworthy men have succeeded in securing the printing of the public documents.

The Subscribers, at their extensive STEAM JOB PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT, in the TRIBUNE BUILD-INGS, guarantee to do all PUBLIC PRINTING intrusted to their care in the Best style of the Aut, at the time appointed, and at the most reasonable rates. Their facilities for doing ALL KINDS OF PRINTING-plain, fancy, and in colors, are unsurpassed. By the aid of STEAM PRESSES, NEW TYPE, and competent assistants in every department, they are confident that every customer will be fully satisfied with the work delivered to him.
